Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Om Sri Sai Ram.

I am pleased to introduce a new resource that gives us a glimpse of how Bhagawan's love and message is spreading worldwide. There are many ways of spreading Bhagawan's universal and eternal message and inspiring works throughout the world. Websites and emails are now easily available and can be a powerful source of divine inspiration, if used properly.

Our Media Committee and IT Committee have developed this new website where you can quickly and easily view the loving activities of Sathya Sai volunteers all around the globe. It is appropriately named Sathya Sai Universe, and can be accessed by the following link.

<http://saiuniverse.sathyasai.org>

There is a welcome message on the homepage with a video overview of the website.

Work of the Sathya Sai Organisation in 126 countries will be reported on Sathya Sai Universe and will be updated continuously with your help and cooperation. This website will have inspiring stories, articles, pictures and videos that will capture the full range of spiritual, educational and service activities of Sathya Sai volunteers around the world (outside of India).

The latest updates are available on the homepage, and you can view the full story by clicking on the title or the arrow at the end. You can also find content by visiting the Archive/Search page, and searching by date, type of activity, zone or country. Google Translation into many languages has been built into the website for your convenience.

Please visit Sathya Sai Universe regularly and enjoy the uplifting stories.

Jai Sai Ram.

Lovingly in the Service of Sai,
Narendranath Reddy, M.D.
Chairman, Prasanthi Council.
